Last Name _____ First Name _____ Middle Initial _____

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please read it carefully. For details, Click here (Link may not open in all browsers) .

As a health care provider we are legally obligated to maintain the privacy of your health information, provide you with this "Notice of Privacy Practices" and to abide by these terms.

We may disclose medical records and other identifiable health information for your treatment, payment or health care operations.

- Treatment means providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. This includes coordination of care with a third party, consultation between health care providers, or referral to another provider.
- Payment means activities undertaken to obtain payment for services, including determination of eligibility and benefits, pre-certification or pre-authorization of services, billing and collections.
- Health care operations refers to business aspects of running our practice such as quality assessment and improvement activities.

We may contact you with appointment reminders or to provide information about health related benefits or services that may be available to you. We will not use or disclose protected health information for any other purposes without obtaining your authorization. Any authorization may also be revoked. You have the following rights regarding your health information upon written request:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures.
- The right to receive confidential communications of your protected health information.
- The right to inspect and copy your protected health information.
- The right to amend your protected health information.
- The right to obtain a record of disclosures of protected health information.

There are circumstances in which we are not required to agree with your request to restrict the use and disclosure of your information or to amend your protected health information.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and apply revised privacy practices to protected health information.

If you have any concerns or suspect any violations of privacy rights you may contact the CEO or the office manager or the Compliance officer at (817) 251-0070. No retaliation will be taken against an individual who files a complaint. Complaints may also be filed with the secretary of the department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201. However, we would prefer to be contacted so that we can ratify any issues as they arise.

OUR FINANCIAL POLICY

Last Name _____ First Name _____ Middle Initial _____

Thank you for choosing us as your health care provider. Our main concern is that you receive the proper and optional treatments needed to restore your health.

We ask that all patients read and sign our financial policy as well as complete our patient information form prior to seeing the doctor. If you have any questions or concerns about our payment policies, please do not hesitate to ask our office staff.

Your co-payment is due at the time services are rendered. We accept cash, checks, and for your convenience, MasterCard and Visa cards.

As a courtesy to you, we will be happy to file your insurance claim for reimbursement as long as you bring your insurance card with all information. It is your responsibility to provide us with correct, up-to-date insurance information. However, you must understand that:

1. Your insurance policy is a contract between you, your employer and the insurance company. We are NOT a party to that contract. Our relationship is with you, not your insurance company. We will do all we can to assist you but it is your insurance policy. It is your responsibility to understand your health care network and which physicians and health care facilities you may use.
2. Not all services are covered benefits in all contracts. Those not covered will be your responsibility. Please check your insurance plan.
3. Co-payments and unpaid deductible are due at the time of treatment.
4. You may pay your balance due with cash, check, MasterCard or Visa.

We understand that temporary financial problems may affect timely payment of your balance. We encourage you to communicate any such problems so that we can assist you in the management of your account.

Again, thank you for choosing us as your health care provider. We appreciate your trust in us and we appreciate the opportunity to serve you.
